

Minding the Mind, an Insight Meditation Retreat - NM
October 10-13 or 10-17, 2008— Galilee Centre, Arnprior, Ontario
Teachers: Norman Feldman and Molly Swan

“All experience is preceded by mind, led by mind, made by mind.”

With this simple statement, the Buddha pointed to the great importance of understanding mind and being conscious of mind if we wish to live wisely and skillfully in this world. On this retreat we will explore various aspects and qualities of mind and how the mind shapes and colours our experience, for better or worse. With this understanding, mind can be seen not as an enemy, but as a potentially skillful friend, contributing to the well-being of oneself and others.

Norman Feldman has studied and practiced meditation in the Theravada and Mahayana traditions of Buddhism since 1971, both in Asia and the West. Since 1986 he has been leading Insight Meditation retreats internationally, leading classes in sutta study, and offering support to dharma groups and individuals. Norman emphasizes the integration of meditation in retreats and daily life.

Molly Swan has been engaging in spiritual inquiry and dharma practice since 1985, both in Asia and the West. She has been teaching Insight Meditation retreats primarily in Canada & England since 1997 and offers classes, retreat days & individual support closer to their home in Guelph, Ontario.

Norman and Molly are founding members and guiding teachers of True North Insight Meditation Centre.
